BACK TO GILA—J. V. Prochaska of Miami and Charles E. Hogue of Globe left yesterday morning for Gila county by automobile.

DEATH OF L. P. QUIGLEY—News was received yesterday of the death last week in El Paso of L. P. Quigley, formerly well known here.

AT THE COUNTRY CLUB—Mrs. Walter Bennett and Mrs. H. C. Jessup will be hostesses at the Country club today, for cards at 2:30 and for tea at 4:30.

RECITAL TODAY—The young pupils of the piano, violin and expression departments of the Arizona School of Music will be heard in recital this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. These programs are open to the public without charge.

UNRESTRAINED HOGS—R. E. Whitten filed complaint in Judge De Souza's court yesterday against Roy Woolf for allowing his hogs to run at large. Woolf's place is six miles southwest of Phoenix and his neighbor contends he has been damaged by the hogs.

$10.00 FOR LETTER—For the best letter telling which is the best advertisement to appear in tomorrow's paper The Republican will give a prize of ten dollars. There are no strings or restrictions on this contest, and the rules regarding it may be found in a display advertisement appearing elsewhere in this issue.

COFFEE DEMONSTRATION—The well-known "Seed Brand" coffee, a Chase and Sanborn specialty, will be demonstrated today and all of next week at the J. W. Dorris grocery store. In connection with the coffee, which is invited to call and sample, the cakes and crackers made by the National Biscuit company will also be served.

HOLIDAY TRIP—Ed Rudolph left last evening for Los Angeles where he will spend the Christmas holidays with friends. He expects to return to Phoenix in about ten days. He leaves the Ford garage in good hands however, and expects that the boys will have sold a couple of dozen more cars before he returns.

REMODELING THE COURT ROOM—The court room presented a busy scene yesterday. A corps of workmen were busily engaged in tearing out the windows on the east side where the new court room will be located. Work is progressing rapidly and it is hoped the addition will be finished in a few weeks. In the meantime, Judge Stanford and Judge Lyman are holding court in their private offices on the second floor.

RAILROAD MAN HERE—A. W. Mitchell, president of the Arizona & Swanton railroad, was in the city yesterday from House and attended to some business for the company.

UNDELIVERED TELEGRAMS—There are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union telegraph office for the following: Everett LaFever, H. H. Griswold, Mrs. J. D. Lea.

THE SID HENRY ESTATE—The final account of W. H. Plunkett, receiver of the United States Land Title and Legacy company, of which Sid Henry was president, was approved by Judge Stanford yesterday. Upon the receiver presenting a receipt from the trustee in bankruptcy, he will receive his discharge.

WRONG MAN—Parole Clerk Saunders of the State Prison rises to say that The Republican was mistaken as to his making a statement that a man in possession of $500 never was convicted of a crime. It was printed that Mr. Saunders said this during the Feltin insanity hearing. He avers that such a statement was made there, but that he was not the author of it.

A REAL VIOLINIST—Prof. George L. McQuerry of Kansas City, Mo., has taken up quarters at the Hotel San Marcos at Chandler for the season, and will render music on all festive occasions at that winter resort. He claims the distinction of being the world's greatest eccentric violinist and is ready to furnish music for all occasions. He will also have classes in the modern dances.

MAKING COPPER OVERTIME—Gus H. Hirschfeld of Hayden is in the city to get a few hours' rest from the busy-busy of Hayden where they are driving him made with their eternal making of copper. The mill and smelter are running more than night and day. They are in operation 26 hours out of 24. Hirschfeld is used to a busy and active life, but Hayden is a little too continuous for him.

OPEN NIGHT—The Fraternal Brotherhood will have open night at the Knights of Pythias hall this evening. All members and friends are invited. Lunch will be served at noon and dinner at six o'clock, to which the public is cordially invited. There will also be a miscellaneous sale of articles suitable for Christmas gifts. Everybody is urged to be present.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENT—There will be a quarterly meeting services conducted this evening at the Creighton Methodist Episcopal church, in charge of Rev. A. W. Atkinson, superintendent of Arizona missions. On Sunday the regular services will take place at Sunday school at 10 o'clock, followed by the morning church service. At this time the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. Rev. Atkinson in charge. The Epworth league will hold the regular session at 7 o'clock in the evening.

OBITUARY—Mrs. Dora E. Hillis, age 70 years, widow of the late David M. Hillis, died at her home here on Friday, December 17, following a long illness from the effects of rheumatism and its attendant complications. She is survived by two sons, Dr. David Hillis and George H. Hillis. Mrs. Hillis first came to this city about twenty years ago from Chicago, and being favorably impressed with the climate she made frequent trips to this city and spent in all six winters here. While her health was not always of the best, she was of a cheerful disposition and made many friends, some of whom mourn her departure. The remains were sent to the old home in Chicago yesterday evening, accompanied by the two sons.

Christmas Preparedness

We wish you to know what we have done to facilitate your Christmas Buying.

We have prepared a large collection of those things for men, which oftentimes a man would not buy for himself, but which are, nevertheless, articles which any man would be glad to have, and would especially appreciate as a Christmas gift.

Our "Mark Cross" line of traveling and leather goods—the large lines of exclusive patterns in fine silk and knitted cravats—evening dress accessories—lounging robes—sport coats—gloves (for dress, street or motoring)—umbrellas and canes—make excellent gifts for men, and our stocks are large and complete. You should see them now before the busier days immediately preceding Christmas.

You can find here, as usual, an abundance of gifts of moderate cost—in fact, more than ever before—but no deviation from our policy of maintaining the highest excellence in all our merchandise.

The prestige of a gift from McDougall-Cassou adds much to its value but nothing to its cost.
